Monterey Heights Stunning English Tudor Home!

This magnificent remodeled English Tudor home built in 1926 is proudly situated on a prime block in prestigious Monterey Heights! An inviting brick staircase leads to an impressive landing with notable entrance and into a wonderful foyer with open-banister staircase and coat closet. The dramatic sunken formal living room with vaulted open-beam ceiling boasts a floor to ceiling divided-light bay window, imposing wood-burning fireplace with original stone surround and gorgeous hardwood floors. The exquisite banquet-size formal dining room with French doors and striking chandelier is perfect for entertaining! The beautifully remodeled gourmet kitchen with granite counters, custom cabinets and recessed lighting showcases a Wolf gas range and built-in double-oven, microwave, Sub-Zero refrigerator and separate wine cooler, Bosch dishwasher, large pantry, huge work-island with prep sink and storage and an enormous five-sided breakfast room with views to the garden. A comfortable family room and convenient powder room end this level.

The classic staircase with custom-designed railings ascends to the two upper floors. The spectacular master bedroom suite level includes a sitting room, home office/nursery with built-in bookshelves and a luxurious bath with dual vanity sink, soaking tub with jets, big walk-in shower and wall to wall closets. Two additional light-filled bedrooms and another terrific remodeled bath finish the private living quarters. The lower level features a versatile guest bedroom retreat with private entrance, amazing walk-in closet, third full bath and fabulous laundry room with utility sink and storage. The storybook landscaped backyard and garden with walk-out deck, flagstone walking paths and enchanting playhouse completes this truly special home!
